BRODHEAD.

Heavy rains are putting farmers behind with their work.

Oscar Spoonamore bought of James Moore a fine saddle and draft horse for $150.

Rev. A. J. Pike and E. A. Albright were in Mt. Vernon Tuesday and Wednesday.

We understand there came near being a shooting affray near Woodstock Tuesday between John Riddle and his son-in-law, Henry Beatty. Friends intervened and stopped the fuss. Cause unknown.

Jake Elder, who resided in our town for nearly a year teaching school and clerking for Albright & Adams, has moved back to his farm in the Quail section. We are sorry to give up such a good man.

The members of the Christian church are preparing to do considerable work on their building in the near future. Something near $500 has been subscribed already. They contemplate building a large front and repairing the interior. All who can possibly do so should help these people. They are worthy of any assistance that can be given them.

Mrs. Alta Sayers, wife of Sam Sayers, of near this place, died Tuesday after a brief illness of that dread disease, consumption. Mrs. Sayers was but 25 years old, was the granddaughter of our townsman, Burton Owens, and was married to Sayers about a year ago. She was an estimable lady and to know her was to love her. Her remains were interred in the old family burying ground on the Sayers farm. Mr. G. E. Painter conducted the funeral services.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mrs. Rhoda Higgins.

On March 12, 1908, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Kittle King, in Ensley, Ala., the spirit of Mrs. Rhoda Higgins entered into the rest prepared for the children of God. She was a member of the Christian church and lived up to its teachings. To the writer she was a most devoted friend in all that term implies, and while our hearts are grieved over the separation, we can but feel that death, which follows a long and well-spent life, is the most beautiful thing in our whole existence. "Aunt Rhoda," as she was called by her friends, was one of the very best women we ever knew. During her life of 79 years, all of which was spent in Lincoln county, she never had an enemy. She never forgot a kindness shown her, was a kind, good neighbor, generous to all and her charity was unbounded. No gentler, nobler mother ever lived nor one who loved her children better, so we will not think of her as dead—she is just away! She has wandered to an unknown land and left us to wonder what beautiful path she has taken, and while we may often yearn for the sound of her voice and the tender clasp of her hand, hope points to a joyful meeting again in a fairer city, where sorrow is unknown and friends are never parted. To her children she left a legacy that the wealth of the world can not buy—an honored name. And on the resurrection morn she will again appear more beautiful than the lovely flowers heaped upon her casket, as she clasps the hands of her children and leads them into the joys of heaven. B. B.

That languid, lifeless feeling that comes with Spring and early Summer, can be quickly changed to a feeling of buoyancy and energy by the judicious use of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is a genuine tonic to tired, rundown nerves, and but a few doses is needed to satisfy the user that Dr. Shoop's Restorative is actually reaching that tired spot. The indoor life of Winter nearly always leads to sluggish bowels, and to sluggish circulation in general. The customary lack of exercise and outdoor air ties up the liver, stagnates the kidneys, and oft-times weakens the heart's action. Use Dr. Shoop's Restorative a few weeks and all will be changed. A few days test will tell you that you are using the right remedy. You will easily and surely note the change from day to day. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Trouble has arisen in the ranks of the Burley Tobacco Society over the retention of 10 per cent. of the receipts of sales to pay the expenses of the society's organization. A meeting was held in Cincinnati which was attended by President Clarence Lebus and 50 growers. Members of the organization say 10 per cent. of the gross receipts is too large a tax.

"Where's the old man?"
"Gone to school."
"What! at his age?"
"Yes; you see, they're a-goin' to run him for office, an' he wants to learn how to count."

Our Own Joe Bailey.

VALLEY VIEW, TEXAS, March 28.—There was a big meeting of the democrats of Valley View this week and delegates were selected to attend the Ft. Worth meeting. The chairman appointed them as follows: J. R. Ussing, Wm. Huston, Mc Wheat and W. S. McCubbin and we offered the following resolution which was adopted: Be it resolved

1st. We do hereby indorse the candidacy for the presidency of the United States the gifted statesman, true patriot and christian gentleman, William Jennings Bryan, and we rejoice that the outlook for democracy's success and the return to the principles and policies of the father of our party is so auspicious.

2nd. For years a that gifted orator, profound statesman and loyal friend of the people, Joseph Weldon Bailey, has lived among us as our fellow citizen, we have seen his daily life during that time and we do hereby proclaim our unbounded confidence in the purity of his purpose; we vigorously denounce the malicious assaults that have been made upon him as the result of political or personal envy and jealousy. We firmly believe that in the history of the nation democracy has never had an abler or more sincere exponent. We are most heartily in favor of and do hereby indorse his being sent as a delegate-at-large to the National Democratic Convention to be held at Denver in July next.

Our own Joe is being tramped on by political enemies who are sore heads, but the true democrats are going to see that he is vindicated on May 2, when he will sweep the State and go as delegate-at-large to the National Convention. We have some democrats here like the four you have in Kentucky, but they will soon be things of the past. I hope the democrats of Kentucky will rise up in their power and send Gov. Beckham as a delegate-at-large to the National Convention with instructions to vote for W. J. Bryan.

I enclose $1, for which let the I. J. come on another year as I still love it, for its principle is pure democracy. I still love the Kentucky people but do not love the way some of her people have done. I can never love a man who was elected as a democrat and then votes for a republican. I trust that in the future Kentucky will elect only those democrats who have been tried and are found true. MC WHEAT.

Death Was On His Heels.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., had a close call in the Spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared consumption had me, and death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two and a half bottles I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

A Paducah dispatch says: Warnings to Negroes to move are being issued promiscuously in this section, and many people believe that they are a scheme to secure property and land at a sacrifice. A few Negroes in this county have been notified to get out, and in each instance they owned their property. At Benton, where a general order was posted for Negroes to leave, offers have been made to Negroes for their property.

Weak women get prompt and lasting help by using Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. These soothing, healing, anti-septic suppositories, with full information how to proceed are interestingly told of in my book "No. 4 For Women." The book and strictly confidential medical advice is entirely free. Simply write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis., for my book No. 4. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

Mr. S. L. Bowen, of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Cure. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Cure works wonders where others are total failures. Penny's Drug Store.

He Got What He Needed.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, Ind. Ter. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it back on the turf again, and I've been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store. 50c.

We could have told without reading the report that Dr. Powell made a speech at the Law and Order meeting. When there is a chance to parade down in front of footlights of Macaulay's theatre and fire off his hoss pistol he is always on hand.—Frankfort Journal.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

WHAT we said about E. W. Lillard running for State Senator next time was meant in a Pickwickian way but the little geese of the Danville Advocate pretend to believe that we were in earnest. The thought of Lillard running for anything is too ridiculous for anybody to think about, save possibly the editors of the Advocate, who patted him on the back when Lillard bolted Beckham for U. S. Senator.

THE Georgetown correspondent of the Lexington Herald says it is all "bosh" about Caleb Powers being dangerously ill. In an interview with Powers' physician, Dr. J. E. Pack, the latter admits that the prisoner is suffering with neuralgia but that his condition is far from serious.

HUNDREDS of Democrats from Missouri, Kansas and other nearby States attended the dollar dinner given in Kansas City by the Young Men's Democratic Club. William J. Bryan and Judge Judson Harmon were the guests of honor. Bryan as usual was the center of attraction.

The Warner and Foraker bills for the restoration to duty of Negro soldiers discharged without honor because of the affray at Brownsville, Tex., were defeated in the Senate Committee on Military Affairs by the votes of the five Democratic members who joined with the Republican opposition.

Democratic National Committeeman Urey Woodson says he is much pleased with the plans that have been made thus far for the Democratic National Convention at Denver. He says Kentuckians will be cared for in great shape at the big gathering; that Kentucky's headquarters will be at the Brown Palace Hotel, and that he intends to do his best to see that every Kentuckian gets a good seat in the convention.

Besides music, both vocal and instrumental, the question of whether or not Lincoln county should have a new court-house will be debated. Wallace Singleton and John M. Waters will speak for a new temple of justice and Charles Downer and Lester O'Bannon will contend that the old building is good enough.

F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, and assisted by Elds. Joseph Ballou and D. M. Walker, of this place. Besides her husband, Mrs. Raney leaves six children to feel keenly the loss of a mother's love and tender care. May He Who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, comfort them in this dark hour of trouble. Deceased was Miss Underwood, a sister of Messrs. Luther and W. H. Underwood, and she was a most excellent christian woman. Joining the Christian church at an early age, her life was spent serving the Master by doing what she deemed right in His sight. Stone's residence and trash must be dumped there or out of the town limits. B. D. Carter, City Marshal.

HON. WALLER BENNETT, of Richmond, who seeks the honor of being a delegate from this Congressional district to the Chicago National Convention, spent several days in this county. Mr. Bennett, who is one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Madison county, is a strong Taft man, and to one who views the situation from the off-side of the political fence, the selection of this affable gentleman would be a fitting honor worthy bestowed.

JONES.—L. D. Jones, son of W. F. Jones, of Arabia, died March 22 and was buried in Middleburg cemetery. Deceased was 26 years old and had been a faithful and consistent member of the New Salem Baptist church for eight years. He was sick for over a year, and half of that time was confined to his room. Tuberculosis was the fatal malady which cut short his life and brought the bitterness of an absent loved one to the family circle. This son had the noble destiny of bringing no tears to his mother's eyes or groans from his father's lips. All who knew him esteemed him for his many manly qualities. To the grief stricken parents we would humbly recall the words of his brother, who said: "Whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die; believeth thou this." It is our firm conviction that this young man was truly a child of God and that he is now in the enjoyment of heaven's bliss. After life's fitful fever he sleeps well, as he is "Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep, A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the hand of foes."
